Dear Harold,

Who is Rossman's publisher?

Yes, there is a market for assassination material as per E.A., Mayer, Arlington, Condon's new novel but publishers want usual, sensational junk.

It is fatal to deal in autopsy data because your coaching of Oswald destroyed the credibility of the autopsy.

As for academic studies, too much documentation is unavailable.

A Who Killed King? article would need room timely - The National Enquirer, perhaps.

Of course, Eddleston had one heck of a time finding an outlet for The Pentagon Papers!
